2018 ANNUAL REPORT

Aloha, FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Since May 1983, when John White and local truck driver Ron Keith opened a small warehouse on Sand Island, Hawaii Foodbank has served as a vital safety net for keiki, adults and kupuna at risk of hunger.

That mission continues today.

It's important for every organization to look back at the previous year and evaluate what went right and what can be done to be more efficient. We are pleased to share the many accomplishments in our 35th year of serving the hungry in our communities.

I am happy to report that the organization ended fiscal year 2017-2018 on a positive note with improved finances and outstanding program accomplishments. We distributed more than 12.5 million pounds of food, which is equivalent to more than 9.8 million meals. We continue to help feed 1 in 8 people in our state – including more than 54,000 keiki.

As for myself, it's been a whirlwind of events and emotions since joining the family. We responded to the epic storm in April that caused millions of dollars in damage in East Oahu and on the north shore of Kauai. Not long after, we provided relief and recovery efforts to hundreds of families on Hawaii Island following the devastating eruption of Kilauea. Then, we prepared for three hurricanes and helped feed hundreds of residents seeking shelter at schools and parks.

Yes – it's been quite a year, and we certainly could not have had this level of success without the support from our Board of Directors, our generous community stakeholders and all the loyal donors who believe in our mission. Mahalo nui loa for your contributions toward helping to feed Hawaii's hungry.

Hawaii Foodbank is positioning itself for a future of growth and diversification. It's an exciting time and we ask you to please join us on this journey. Together, we can end hunger in Hawaii – one meal at a time.

With much respect and aloha,

Ron Mizutani,
President and CEO

Hawaii for 35 years*

Our MISSION

The people of Hawaii are one 'ohana. Hawaii Foodbank provides food so that no one in our family goes hungry. We work to gather food and support from our communities. We then distribute food through charitable agencies to those in need. Our mission is from the heart, and we will fulfill our mission with integrity, humanity and aloha.

FILLING the Need

Hawaii Foodbank works with a network of food partner agencies to nourish, support and sustain 1 in 8 people in Hawaii.

Together - we serve low-income families, the working poor, homeless individuals, disabled veterans, the underemployed and unemployed, and people in need of emergency food assistance. This includes more than 54,000 keiki who are at risk of hunger in our community.

Many families in Hawaii must use coping mechanisms for their hunger. This means opting in for cheaper, unhealthier food options and skipping meals. To get by, they may even forego other essential needs like housing, medicine, utilities, education and transportation.

ABOUT HAWAII FOODBANK

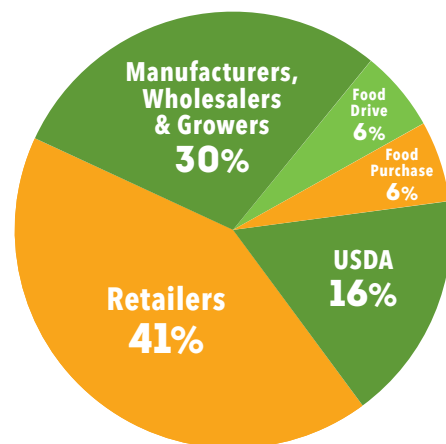

Hawaii Foodbank is a non-profit 501(c)3 agency that provides food assistance to the state of Hawaii. We serve Oahu and Kauai directly while partnering with The Food Basket to serve Hawaii County and Maui Food Bank to serve Maui County. Together, we work to ensure that no one in our Hawaii 'ohana goes hungry.

Hawaii Foodbank distributed more than 12.5 million pounds of food, including 3 million pounds of fresh produce, on Oahu and Kauai in fiscal year 2018.

SOURCES OF FOOD

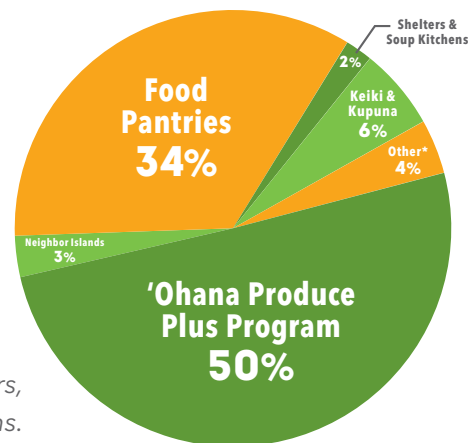

Hawaii Foodbank operates out of two locations: our 23,668 square-foot warehouse on Oahu and our 4,750 square-foot warehouse on Kauai. Both are AIB inspected and certified for food safety. In our warehouses – we receive, inspect, sort, inventory, store, and distribute perishable and non-perishable food.

We receive food from food manufacturers and growers, food purchases, food retailers and wholesalers, Feeding America, individual and corporate food drives, and federal food commodities.

DISTRIBUTION OF FOOD

Hawaii Foodbank partners with food pantries, homeless shelters, soup kitchens, domestic abuse shelters and rehabilitation centers to distribute food through feeding programs like the following: 'Ohana Produce Plus, multiple Food 4 Keiki programs, Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program and Senior Food Box Program.

 This includes programs for rehabilitation centers, domestic abuse shelters and residential programs.*

Hawaii Foodbank is a certified member of Feeding America - the nation's largest and most powerful domestic hunger-relief organization, encompassing a network of 200 food banks across the country. We are also a proud partner agency of Aloha United Way and Kauai United Way.

FEEDING

'OHANA PRODUCE PLUS

For more than 20 years, Hawaii Foodbank and participating food partner agencies have distributed millions of pounds of fresh produce, assorted dry goods and non-perishable food items to underserved communities on Oahu through the 'Ohana Produce Plus Program. Recipients of this program include families with low income, individuals with disabilities, the homeless and working poor. For many people, the 'Ohana Produce Plus Program is their only source of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Last year, Hawaii Foodbank worked with 28 food partner agencies to distribute more than 2.5 million pounds of fresh produce and 3.5 million pounds of baked goods, dairy products, eggs, cereal, snacks and beverages on Oahu.

FOOD 4 KEIKI

BACKPACK PROGRAM

The Backpack Program is a unique program that provides extra meals to sustain children from low-income households over the weekends and during school breaks. Students of Princess Victoria Kaiulani Elementary School and Linapuni Elementary School in Kalihi receive pre-assembled food packages every Friday during the school year.

Hawaii Foodbank helped distribute food for more than 20,000 food bags during the 2017-2018 school year.

FEEDING OUR FUTURE

Hawaii Foodbank has partnered with the Sodexo Foundation over the last 14 years to organize Feeding Our Future, a summer lunch program for children at risk of hunger.

Last year, the program distributed more than 10,000 summer lunches to children in various youth programs.

SCHOOL PANTRY PROGRAM

In May 2018, Hawaii Foodbank launched the School Pantry Program. The program helps provide bags filled with canned proteins and meals, dry goods, and snacks to students and their families.

our 'Ohana

SENIOR FARMERS' MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAM (SFMNP)

The Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) provides low-income seniors with greater access to fresh fruits and vegetables. Program participants can redeem vouchers for items like fresh produce, herbs and honey at participating Farmers' Market vendors.

From April to September 2018, nearly 6,000 seniors received more than 50,000 vouchers on Oahu and Kauai. Each recipient was given $50 worth of vouchers.

SENIOR FOOD BOX PROGRAM

The Senior Food Box Program, otherwise known as the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP), distributes food boxes to improve the health and mental status of seniors with low income. Boxes contain supplemental foods such as non-fat dry milk, cheese, cereal, juice, peanut butter, rice, canned meat, fruits and vegetables.

More than 2,000 seniors on Oahu and Kauai qualified for CSFP during the last year. Collectively, they received more than 16,000 senior food boxes.

MOBILE FOOD PANTRY

On June 28, 2018, staff members from Hawaii Foodbank Kauai Branch met with Scott Giarman, Lori Almarza and Lynette Medrano-Stine at the Kauai United Way office in Lihue. There, Hawaii Foodbank Kauai Branch received a generous check for more than $14,000. This funding from Kauai United Way was designated to help with flood relief efforts on Kauai.

Accordingly, a trailer was purchased and converted into a Mobile Food Pantry in order to carry food to the areas of Kauai that were ravished by the April flooding.

The Mobile Food Pantry has been diligently providing service to the Haena-Wainiha communities, which were heavily impacted by the flooding and landslides.

Once the trailer is no longer needed for disaster-related work, it will continue to be utilized to deliver food and supplies to other food programs and agencies around Kauai.

Hawaii Foodbank Kauai Branch distributed more than

1.4 MILLION
pounds of food,

including more than 178,000 pounds of fresh produce, on Kauai in fiscal year 2018.

STATE COALITION FOOD DRIVE

The annual State Coalition Food Drive was held from Feb. 21 to May 19, 2018. A total of 891 pounds of non-perishable food items and $1,653 in monetary donations were collected in support of Hawaii Foodbank Kauai Branch. We are grateful for all of the state offices that supported the food drive.

The Department of Health was the largest donor, collecting 198 pounds.

BANKERS COALITION FOOD DRIVE

The Bankers Coalition Food Drive was held from April 17 to May 31, 2018, and collected a total of 2,236 pounds of non-perishable food items. We would like to thank American Savings, Bank of Hawaii, Central Pacific Bank, Finance Factors, First Hawaiian Bank and Territorial Savings for their participation.

First Hawaiian Bank in Lihue was the largest donor, contributing 654 pounds. In their 160th year of service, they have consistently shown incredible support to help fulfill our mission on Kauai. We are grateful for their spirit and support.

KŌKUA in Action

Our Hawaii Foodbank volunteers play a vital role in the flow of food that comes through our warehouses every day. Beyond our warehouse walls - volunteers provide valuable assistance to our food partner agencies, special projects and year-round events.

We cannot fulfill our mission without the thousands of volunteers dedicated to providing hunger relief every year. It is truly a collaborative effort.

Our 'ohana
