

BEYOND the SHELF

2019 ANNUAL REPORT

Aloha,

FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF HAWAII FOODBANK

We are pleased to share the many accomplishments of our 36th year of serving Hawaii's hungry.

Thank you for your continued support that helped feed 1 in 8 people in Hawaii, including 53,000 keiki. Through your generosity and belief in Hawaii Foodbank, we distributed more than 12 million pounds of food in 2019. With the help of our food partner network, which includes more than 200 charitable agencies and food bank programs, we provided food for nearly 9.5 million meals to feed the hungry in our communities.

It was a year of new opportunities and exciting growth for Hawaii Foodbank's programs. In 2019, our Food 4 Keiki School Pantry program expanded to eight schools on O'ahu. In addition, we launched two additional Keiki Pantries at the Kalihi YMCA Teen Center and Hoa 'Aina O Makaha, which serve five more schools nearby. Going into the 2019-2020 school year, we also laid important groundwork for the Food 4 Keiki program on Kaua'i. We prepared for the school year by installing School Pantry equipment at five different schools, including our first high school – Kaua'i High School.

In addition to our core work of gathering and distributing food, our focus on public policy and advocacy is now a critical component to Hawaii Foodbank's work, as well. In the coming year, we will continue to focus on important issues that pertain to our role as an advocate and voice for our hungry 'ohana.

I am extremely grateful to report the organization ended 2019 with improved finances, as well. Our hard work and service were recognized by Charity Navigator, the leading charity evaluator in the United States. For the 10th consecutive year, Hawaii Foodbank attained Charity Navigator's coveted 4-star rating for demonstrating strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency. Charity Navigator evaluates 1.5 million charities across the country, and only two percent have received at least 10 consecutive 4-star evaluations. This exceptional designation demonstrates our trustworthiness to the public.

Donors want accountability, transparency and results – and we have delivered. This did not happen by chance or because of our respected reputation, alone. Rather, it is the result of extremely hard work by compassionate people who are committed to serving our community.

Through it all, we know none of this is possible without the dedicated support of our donors, food partner agencies, local growers, food manufacturers, corporate partners, volunteers, staff, Board of Directors and entire community. Your passion, compassion and ongoing commitment bring us closer to achieving the goal of a hunger-free Hawaii. Humbly, we say, "Mahalo."

With much respect and aloha,

Ron Mizutani,
President and CEO

Serving the people of Hawaii for 36 years

Our MISSION

The people of Hawaii are one 'ohana. Hawaii Foodbank provides food so that no one in our family goes hungry. We work to gather food and support from our communities. We then distribute food through charitable agencies to those in need. Our mission is from the heart, and we will fulfill our mission with integrity, humanity and aloha.

Hawaii Foodbank distributed more than 12 MILLION
pounds of food
on O'ahu and Kaua'i in 2019.

HUNGER touches EVERYONE

This includes many kūpuna and even veterans like 81-year-old Felix, who served in the Air Force for 20 years. After retiring, he worked hard as an auto mechanic for 20 more years. But despite working hard his entire life, a fixed retirement income makes it difficult to make ends meet.

FILLING the Need

Many individuals and families in Hawaii must use coping mechanisms for their hunger. This means opting in for cheaper, unhealthier food options and skipping meals. To get by, many even forego essential needs like housing, medicine, utilities, education and transportation.

To help fill this gap, Hawaii Foodbank works with a network of more than 200 food partner agencies to nourish, support and sustain 1 in 8 people in Hawaii. This includes a growing number of kūpuna and more than 53,000 keiki who are at risk of hunger in our community.

With the help of our network, we serve low-income families, the working poor, homeless individuals, disabled veterans, the underemployed and unemployed, and people in need of emergency food assistance.

ABOUT HAWAII FOODBANK

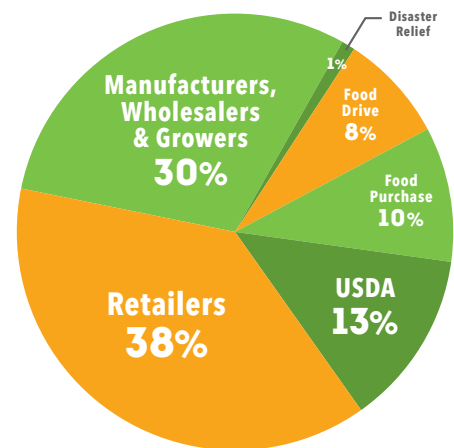

Hawaii Foodbank is a non-profit 501(c)3 agency that provides food assistance to the state of Hawaii. We serve O'ahu and Kaua'i directly while partnering with The Food Basket to serve Hawai'i County and Maui Food Bank to serve Maui County. Together, we work to ensure that no one in our Hawaii 'ohana goes hungry.

Hawaii Foodbank distributed more than 12 million pounds of food, including 3 million pounds of fresh produce, on O'ahu and Kaua'i in 2019.

SOURCES OF FOOD

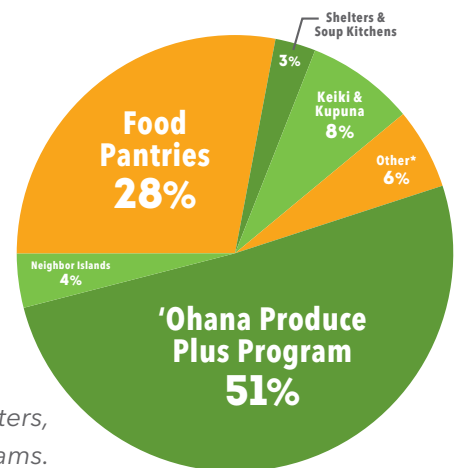

Hawaii Foodbank operates out of two locations: our 23,668 square-foot warehouse on O'ahu and our 4,750 square-foot warehouse on Kaua'i. Both warehouses are AIB inspected and certified for food safety. In our warehouses – we receive, inspect, sort, inventory, store, and distribute perishable and non-perishable food.

We receive food from food manufacturers and growers, food purchases, food retailers and wholesalers, Feeding America, individual and corporate food drives, and federal food commodities.

DISTRIBUTION OF FOOD

Hawaii Foodbank partners with food pantries, homeless shelters, soup kitchens, domestic abuse shelters, rehabilitation centers and others to distribute food through feeding programs like the following: 'Ohana Produce Plus, multiple Food 4 Keiki programs, the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program and the Senior Food Box Program.

 This includes programs for rehabilitation centers, domestic abuse shelters and residential programs.*

Hawaii Foodbank is a certified member of Feeding America – the nation's largest hunger-relief organization, encompassing a network of 200 food banks across the United States. Hawaii Foodbank is also a proud partner agency of Aloha United Way and Kaua'i United Way.

'OHANA PRODUCE PLUS

For more than 20 years, Hawaii Foodbank and participating food partner agencies have distributed millions of pounds of fresh produce, assorted dry goods and non-perishable food items to under-served communities through the 'Ohana Produce Plus program. Recipients of this program include families with low income, individuals with disabilities, the homeless, working poor and more. For many people, 'Ohana Produce Plus is their only source of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Last year, Hawaii Foodbank worked with 51 food partner agencies on O'ahu and Kaua'i to distribute more than 2.6 million pounds of fresh produce and more than 3.7 million pounds of baked goods, dairy products, eggs, cereal, snacks, beverages, canned goods and other items.

FOOD 4 KEIKI

SCHOOL PANTRY PROGRAM

The Food 4 Keiki School Pantry program serves as a critical food resource for young students, their siblings and their families. The School Pantries provide after-school snacks for young students, as well as additional family food bags to take home. Bags are filled with canned proteins, canned meals, dry goods, snacks and more.

In 2019, Hawaii Foodbank opened School Pantries at Ka'ewai Elementary School, Kamaile Academy, Kipapa Elementary School, Ma'ili Elementary School, Pu'uhale Elementary School, Wahiawa Elementary School and Wai'anae Elementary School. Two additional Keiki Pantries were also opened on non-Department of Education grounds to serve students and families from other nearby schools. The Kalihi YMCA Teen Center serves students from Farrington High School and four Kalihi middle schools, and Hoa 'Aina O Makaha serves students at neighboring Makaha Elementary School. Throughout the 2018-2019 school year, 11,702 students received family food bags to take home.

FEEDING OUR FUTURE

Feeding Our Future is a summer lunch program for children at risk of hunger. Hot lunches were distributed by our food partner agencies, including Catholic Charities Hawaii, Institute for Human Services, Princess Ka'iulani Elementary School, Mutual Housing Association of Hawai'i, and the Boys & Girls Club of Hawaii.

Last summer, Feeding Our Future distributed 8,216 meals to hungry keiki.

Our 'Ohana

SENIOR FARMERS' MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAM

The Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) provides low-income seniors with greater access to fresh fruits and vegetables. Program participants can redeem vouchers for items like fresh produce, herbs and honey at participating Farmers' Market vendors. This program is provided in partnership with the State of Hawaii and the Office of Community Services.

From April to September 2019, the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program served 6,328 certified participants on O'ahu and Kaua'i. Each senior received $50 worth of vouchers.

SENIOR FOOD BOX PROGRAM

The Senior Food Box Program, otherwise known as the Commodity Supplemental Food Program, distributes food boxes to improve the health and mental status of seniors with low income. Boxes contain supplemental foods such as non-fat dry milk, cheese, cereal, juice, peanut butter, rice, canned meat, fruits, vegetables, and more. This program is provided in partnership with the State of Hawaii and the Office of Community Services.

Last year, the Senior Food Box Program served 5,812 qualified seniors. A total of 24,233 senior food boxes were distributed on O'ahu and Kaua'i.

NOURISHING Kaua'i

PREPAREDNESS AND RELIEF

As Hawaii Foodbank Kaua'i closed out the previous year, we had a chance to look back and ask, "What did we learn from this past year?" Through it all, we remain convinced that the people of Kaua'i are as resilient as the best in the world.

A devastating flood and a near hurricane miss proved no match for our close-knit community. As many suffered the loss of their homes, property and employment – the rest of our Kaua'i community banded together to provide heartfelt assistance.

In 2018, we converted a trailer into a Mobile Food Pantry with the assistance of partners like Kaua'i United Way. It was a critical tool in providing necessary assistance to the Hā'ena-Wainiha communities, which were heavily impacted by the flooding and landslides. Through corporate and individual donations, Hawaii Foodbank Kaua'i and its network of food partner agencies provided more than 380,000 pounds of food and emergency supplies to those in need. This provided essential nutritional assistance to displaced families through half of 2019 due to the extended highway closure. Today, the hunger.

Hawaii Foodbank Kaua'i distributed more than
1.3 MILLION
pounds of food,
including 181,919 pounds
of fresh produce, on Kaua'i in 2019.

Mobile Food Pantry continues to deliver food to families in need. The flooding and road closures may now be over, but we know there is still more work to be done.

And, we know we don't do this work alone. It is due to the efforts of donors like Kaua'i United Way; retail partners like Walmart and Safeway; our network of food partner agencies, including the Christ Memorial Church, Church of the Pacific, St. William Church, and U-Turn for Christ; and so many more. Disaster preparedness and relief is truly a collaborative effort, and we are grateful.

While all of this emergency relief took place, Hawaii Foodbank Kaua'i continued its service to the 13,000 Kaua'i residents who already rely on us every day. With the support from our volunteers, food partner agencies and donors – we distributed more than 1.3 million pounds of food to our island 'ohana.

Approximately 73 percent of our client households are food insecure, which means they do not always know where their next meal will come from. Our humble clients often find themselves making very difficult choices – decisions like cutting down portions, skipping meals or even going entire days without eating. This promotes an environment of uncertainty, malnutrition and depression for too many of our neighbors. This is unacceptable.

We hope that our work will help them feel less stressed and more hopeful for a better tomorrow. We firmly believe that everyone should have enough safe and nutritious food to thrive. Our ultimate dream is that we can create an island community without hunger – one that will positively impact our health, education, social development and economy. Eliminating hunger is fundamental to ensuring a better future for all of us on Kaua'i.

With gratitude and aloha,

KŌKUA in Action

Our Hawaii Foodbank volunteers play a vital role in the flow of food that comes through our warehouses every day. Inside the warehouse, volunteers inspect dry food and produce donations by checking the integrity of food products, sorting categories and boxing items for warehouse storage. This helps prepare food for distribution, so we can get it more efficiently to those in need. Warehouse volunteers also provide important administrative and clerical assistance. Beyond our warehouse walls – volunteers provide valuable support to our food partner agencies, special projects and year-round events.

We are grateful for the spirit and support of volunteers like Velma Yokoyama. In addition to volunteering with a group of friends every Friday in the office, Velma is a mainstay at many of Hawaii Foodbank's special events.
